

Big Group Breakout Sessions:

Big Group Breakout Sessions offer a deeper dive into some of the major policy issues and advocacy opportunities that will be touched on more briefly through other parts of the CLC. Each session will be presented by an expert(s) on the subject to an audience of approximately 60 attendees, leaving time for questions and discussion. You must select 1 topic table AND 1 breakout session when you register.

What does MACRA mean for me

Payment reform was a long time coming, but now that it's finally here – what happens next? Come hear from the experts about how the MACRA Payment Program will affect you and your practice.

Black and White and Read All Over

Make headlines TODAY! Learn how to hold legislators accountable through the art of the LTE: Letter to the Editor. This hands-on breakout session will explore the benefits of a good LTE campaign while putting ideas into action in real time – you'll leave the room with a finalized letter in hand, ready to send to your local paper!

All Politics Is Local

Have you had a state policy victory that you can't wait to talk about? Are you looking for advice on beating back a dangerous bill? Planning your first state lobby day, or looking for new ideas to keep things fresh? Let's make sure ACOG advocacy never recreates the wheel. Come join a facilitated discussion with your colleagues about best practices and creative concepts to achieve state advocacy wins!

ACOG: The Next Generation

Junior Fellow advocacy will determine the future of our specialty. Plus, it's fun! Come meet other JFs from around the country who share your passion. Learn new ways to get involved, swap strategies for spreading the "advocacy bug" in your residency program, and hear tips of the trade from some of the pros!