

Emily Barnard, DO, FACOG
District III at time of application; District IV at time of service
Candidate for ACOG Young Physician at Large
Summary Statement

A. Educational background

1. Undergraduate: Gustavus Adolphus College 2004-2008
2. Medical School: Kansas City University of Medicine and Biosciences 2009-2013
3. Residency: Mayo Clinic 2013-2017
4. Fellowship: Reproductive Endocrinology and Infertility, University of Pittsburgh Medical Center Magee-Womens Hospital 2017-2020

B. Practice-related activities

1. Site: University of Pittsburgh Medical Center Magee-Womens Hospital, clinical fellow in Reproductive Endocrinology and Infertility
2. Scope: Reproductive Endocrinology and Infertility
3. Upcoming Employment: Shady Grove Fertility, start date September 2020

C. Educational or academic experience

1. Academic appointments: Clinical Fellow in Reproductive Endocrinology and Infertility
2. Educational activities related to medical students, residents, fellows
  - a. Hysteroscopy simulation training monthly for residents on REI rotation
  - b. Annual didactic lectures to residents on REI topics
  - c. One on one mentoring with medical students and residents interested in Ob/Gyn and/or REI

D. ACOG activities

1. ACOG Cefalo National Leadership Institute designee from District III 2020
2. District III Junior Fellow Chair, JFCAC Member 2019-present
3. District III Junior Fellow Vice Chair, JFCAC Member 2018-2019
4. District III Secretary-Treasurer 2017-2018
5. District VI Secretary-Treasurer 2015-2017
6. Poster presentation at ACOG Annual Clinical and Scientific Meetings in 2015, 2017, 2018, 2019
7. Publication: Eke, A. C., Barnard, E.P., Desai, A.N., Chescheir, N.C. (2016). "Connect the Dots-August 2016." Obstet Gynecol 2016;128(2): 403-404.
8. Second place poster award at 2015 Minnesota ACOG Annual Autumn Seminar

E. Other professional or committee-related activities

1. Pennsylvania State Captain, RESOLVE/ASRM Advocacy Day 2019
2. American Society for Reproductive Medicine (ASRM) oral abstract session moderator and abstract reviewer at annual meeting 2018-present
3. Society for Reproductive Endocrinology and Infertility (SREI) Associate Member Co-Chair 2018-present
4. Interactive Associate, Fertility and Sterility Journal 2018-present