B. PRACTICE RELATED ACTIVITIES

In February of 2018, I moved to Rush to rebuild the strong tradition of FPMRS that originated there. We have since as of the Winter of 2019, we have hired three additional fellowship trained individuals to expand our group's practice across the Chicagoland area. Our practice not only serves our patients, it allows us to teach residents and medical students. My strength is vaginal surgery and I am one of the key faculty members demonstrating and training residents in that skill. Previously, I have served as faculty at Loyola University, Chicago (2013-2017) and University of Wisconsin, Madison (2011-2013).

C. EDUCATIONAL AND ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

Commencing January 1, 2020, I became the Chair of the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology at Rush University Medical Center. Prior to this I have served many roles in the education of medical students, residents, and fellows. From formal roles such as clerkship director and division director to less formal ones such as mentoring medical students through the match and residents through to their first jobs as attending physicians. In my current role as District VI Junior Fellow (JF) Advisor, I am kept up to date with regard to the current concerns and triumphs of our trainees and JFs in practice.
