

ACOG District II 2020 Resident Advocacy Program

The Resident Advocacy Program (RAP) helps Ob-Gyn residents gain a greater understanding of policy and political factors that shape the future of the specialty.

The program seeks to prepare a new generation of physicians to influence the future of our healthcare delivery system and offers the opportunity to participate in the political process in the state capital of Albany, NY.

RAP consists of a two-day, one night trip to Albany for up to two residents per program and includes travel, lodging and select meals.

MARCH 3-4, 2020

ACOG will host this program in conjunction with the Medical Society of the State of New York (MSSNY) to lobby on a variety of issues impacting the medical community.

Registration is now open: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/7SD3KG7>

May 11-12, 2020

ACOG will host this RAP in conjunction with a DII Lobby Day. Lobby Day discussions will feature our end of session priorities.

Registration is now open: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/7XCL2DW>

Interested residents should check-in with their Program Director to find the opportunity that best meets their needs.
