GETTING BACK TO BASICS

2017
Districts VI, VII & XI
Annual Meeting

September 15-17, 2017
Hyatt Regency Hill Country

San Antonio
Hill Country

FINAL PROGRAM
Dear Colleagues and Guests:

On behalf of Districts VI, VII and XI of the American Congress of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG), we welcome you to our Annual Meeting in San Antonio! We hope you enjoy your stay at the Hyatt Regency Hill Country and take advantage of all that this destination has to offer.

The Scientific Committee has designed an excellent program that promises to provide you with important updates and current trends relevant to our specialty. Each session will be led by experts and distinguished faculty from Districts VI, VII and XI. You will leave this meeting with practical information that you will be able to take back and implement immediately in your practice.

Our program kicks off on Friday morning with the Ralph J. Anderson, MD, TAOG Resident Research Day along with the Districts VI and VII Resident Research Day. New this year, we are offering the Emergencies in Clinical Obstetrics Course (ECO), an off-site course at the Children’s National Medical Center’s simulation lab. Lectures begin Friday afternoon and cover diverse topics such as Immunization, PCOS, and Gyn Surgery. On Friday evening, please join us in the Exhibit Hall to network with your friends, colleagues, and exhibitors during the Welcome Reception.

On Saturday, our scientific program continues with lectures and breakout sessions covering a diverse range of topics including Ethics, Social Media, Opioid Use, Urogynecology, Anesthesia and DMG. The annual medical student program will feature a half-day of panels, hands-on skills labs, and a residency fair with ob-gyn programs from across the districts. We also invite you to participate in our Film Festival and Mentorship Mingle on Saturday afternoon.

Our Sunday program features lectures on Ethics and Preeclampsia-Spectrum Disorder. After the morning break, we will focus on our Junior Fellows for the Stump the Professors and the Oral Presentations.

Thank you for coming to San Antonio – one of America’s most authentic and passionate cities, spirited with poets and lyricists, painters and sculptors, a city both rich and humble. Become a part of the living mural – and let San Antonio become a part of your heart.

Sincerely,

Denise M. Elser, MD

Happening This Week

Texas in the First World War
UTSA Institute of Texan Cultures
801 E. Cesar E. Chavez Blvd.
San Antonio, TX 78205
9 AM – 5 PM Monday through Saturday;
Noon to 5 PM Sunday

One hundred years ago, the United States entered the "War to End All Wars." This idealistic hope of the "Great War" leading to lasting world peace would instead devastate large parts of the globe, and set in motion events taking humanity directly to yet another world war within decades. "Texas in the First World War" explores the role of the Lone Star State in this pivotal world event.

Little Texan, Big World
UTSA Institute of Texan Cultures
801 E. Cesar E. Chavez Blvd.
San Antonio, TX 78205
9 AM – 5 PM Monday through Saturday;
Noon to 5 PM Sunday

This exhibit features artwork by participants in the City of San Antonio’s Parks & Recreation youth centers. Through storytelling, film, photography and more, area youth explore their own identities through examining their cultural, social and familial experiences. The exhibit focuses on how the student artists view themselves as Texans and how they see themselves in relation to the rest of the world.

5:00 PM – 7:00 PM

“A popular District VI tradition, the Mentorship Mingle connects experienced ACOG leaders with Medical Students, Junior Fellows, and Young Physicians for meaningful, small group discussion about a variety of topics including:

Practice Management • Opportunities within ACOG • Preparing for Residency • Work – Life Balance • Focus on Personal Finance • Coping with Adverse Patient Outcomes • Political Engagement • Contract Negotiating • And Many More...

One of the most important aspects of the mentoring relationship is being able to have someone that you can be involved with, who will be able to speak the truth in love, and be a source of constant support and guidance.”

Michelle Y. Owens, MD
Continuing Medical Education

ACCME Accreditation
The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION PROVIDER NUMBER: 61542

AMA PRA CATEGORY 1 CREDIT(S)™
The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists designates this live activity for a maximum of 11 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

COLLEGE COGNATE CREDIT(S)
The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists designates this live activity for a maximum of 11 Category 1 College Cognate Credits (including 2 CME Credits for Ethics). The College has a reciprocity agreement with the AMA that allows AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™ to be equivalent to College Cognate Credits.

Medical Ethics
The Ethics Hour talks on Saturday and Sunday morning are approved CME credit for Ethics for a total of 2.0 hours. Ethics Certificates will be available onsite following each talk.

Online Evaluations and Certificate Of Attendance
As a participant, you will (1) complete the evaluation online and (2) print your certificate of attendance online. The certificate will be available on the first day of the course and remain available for 3 months after the course is completed.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES
At the end of this meeting, participants should be able to:

1. Discuss the most current evaluation and management recommendations of PCOS.
2. Update providers with current information and recommendations on immunizations.
3. Describe recent advances and updates in gynecologic surgery.
4. Identify physician stress and burnout, and implement techniques to combat such issues.
5. Discuss the latest information in sexually transmitted infections.
6. Discuss issues relevant to social media use in practice.
7. Describe how to counsel patients on opioid abuse and equip physicians with the latest recommendations on opioid use before, during and after pregnancy.
8. Discuss current recommendations of multimodal anesthesia and ways to incorporate it into practice.
10. Discuss issues to be considered in the diagnosis and management of DMG.
11. Discuss and apply principles to establish a healthy balance between work and life demands.
CME Evaluation Instructions

ONLINE EVALUATION

Course evaluation is a key component in determining the effectiveness of the College’s Continuing Education courses. As an attendee, you will:

» Complete the evaluation online

» Print your certificate of attendance online

The evaluation will be available on the first day of the course and remain available for the next three months.

To complete the evaluation and print your certificate, complete the following steps:

1. Go to http://acog.org/ login to your ACOG account, click MyACOG and complete the evaluation.

   Attendees, please use your College website login and password to access the site. If you have not registered for the member side of the College website, you will be prompted to do so. If you have forgotten your email address, please follow the instructions provided on the College website.

2. The session evaluation will be available at the start of each day. Save your entries and go back into the system the next day to continue to evaluate. The entire course evaluation must be completed before you click the submit button. If you click submit before you complete the entire evaluation, you will not be able to go back into the system.

3. Click on the Print Certificate button next to your course listing. Please note that completion of the online evaluation is needed to obtain CME credits. This method provides you flexibility and expanded access at your convenience. Please contact the College’s CME staff cme@acog.org with any questions or concerns.

4. The evaluation will also be available in the meeting app. To access the link, please go to the Speaker Evaluations tab and follow the instructions.

To download the ADM app, please visit: http://my.yapp.us/ACOG6711 OR scan the QR Code:

You will be asked to download the Yapp app.

Once you have downloaded Yapp, you will be able to see the ADM app.

A medical symposium organized and funded by AbbVie, held at the 2017 American Congress of Obstetricians and Gynecologists Districts VI, VII, and XI Annual District Meeting

Join us to manage the case of Nancy, a 28 year old woman who has presented with chronic pelvic pain, and explore the diagnostic odyssey and difficult treatment decisions that patients and gynecologists typically experience.

This symposium is a promotional education activity and is not approved for continuing education credit. The content of this symposium and opinions expressed by the presenters are those of the sponsor or presenters and not of the American Congress of Obstetricians and Gynecologists.

Districts VI, VII and XI would like to express their special thanks to all exhibitors and supporters of the 2017 Annual Meeting. We regret if there are any supporters that have been omitted from this Industrial Exhibitor list due to printing deadlines, but that does not lessen our appreciation for their support. The generous support provided by exhibitors is significant to the success of our meeting and their information and expertise is important to our members’ awareness of new technology and information. Everyone is encouraged to visit as many exhibit booths as possible during the designated breaks to show our appreciation and to gain important knowledge from our partners.
